AVASIS Technology Installs Major Art Commission By David Wiener

For Corporate Headquarters

Salt Lake City, UT—June 28, 2016 – Avasis, the construction software innovator, commissioned David Wiener to create a series of large-scale artwork for its corporate headquarters. The 11 pieces of art are 92” X 46” and depict images unique to the business and events associated with Avasis. “We have had the pleasure of working with David on several projects and recognized his artistic talent. When we saw his fine art, we knew he would be able to create pieces that embody themes important to Avasis. As a dynamic company, we wanted truly unique art – something not found in conventional photography – and David delivered. The art completely changes the tone of this space,” said Steve Urry, CEO of Avasis.

Using the trademark style of his work that David calls, Photographic Constructs, distinct and unique “assemblies” of images are created that expose the viewer to new ways of seeing building construction, architecture, nature, and other subjects through a unique and creative lens.

“Creating Photographic Constructs has allowed me to capture elements within various settings and use my vision to express a novel perspective to the viewer, challenging them to realize how beautiful detail taken out of context can be.”

David Wiener is an internationally recognized photographer, designer, and entrepreneur. His love for photography blossomed back in the 70’s when, at 16, he was one of the youngest professional photographers in America, shooting the exciting worlds of Formula One, the Indy 500, the Americas Cup, and the US Open.

Over 30+ years, David has created art in various mediums and has been featured in Fortune, Forbes, Newsweek, Yachting, Motor Trend, Robb Report, Maxim, Time-Life Books, PBS-TV and numerous other international media. David's art was recently featured in Paddock Magazine, released at the Monaco Grand Prix in May.

David Wiener's creations are in the private collections of Jean Todt, Kirk Posmantur, Michael Schumacher, Peter Gabriel, Kimi Räikkönen, Peter Frampton, Sunday Dutt, Alan Parsons, Pat Metheny, Ferrari SpA, the Mandarin Oriental and many others.

One of David's trademarks as an artist is his keen sense of style, elegance, and timelessness. His design talents have been used by Ferrari, Nike, Columbia, the U.S. Ski Team, Deer Valley Resort and other high profile clients.
